SAYS DR. LORENZ FEELS INSULTED

His Secretary Denies He Will Return Home Because Hospital Invitation Was Withdrawn.

Dr. Adolf Lorenz, who was invited to visit the Hospital for Ruptured and Crippled, No. 321 East 42d Street, and then asked not to come because the surgeons of the staff disapproved of the publicity Dr. Lorenz's work has attracted, refused today to discuss the matter. Dr. Walter L. Galland, his secretary, said, however, that Dr. Lorenz felt insulted.

"Dr. Lorenz was asked to visit the hospital by Dr. Gibney, who withdrew the invitation at the request of the staff, who intimated that Dr. Lorenz was seeking publicity," said Dr. Galland. "They had no right to take this action, because all the publicity Dr. Lorenz has received was brought and unavoidable. He feels that his action is a direct insult."

Dr. Galland denied that Dr. Lorenz would return home on account of the matter. "He will remain and fulfill all his obligations," he said. Dr. Lorenz will conduct his usual weekly clinic at the Department of Health, Brooklyn, tomorrow. He will also give a lecture at the Department of Health, Brooklyn, tomorrow.
